

Superior Court of California, County of Tulare

Updated Notice of Unavailability of Official Reporter

Pursuant to Local Rule 115

Effective October 5, 2015, an official court reporter will be provided in the Visalia Division for:

- Matters heard in Department 11.

Official court reporters will continue to be unavailable in the Visalia Division for:

- All misdemeanor matters heard in Department 14
- Civil limited trials with a time estimate over 2 hours, civil unlimited trials and probate trials

Effective immediately, an official court reporter will be provided in the South County Justice Center for:

- The Misdemeanor Department

Official court reporters will continue to be unavailable in the South County Justice Center for:

- Civil limited trials with a time estimate over 2 hours, civil unlimited trials and probate trials

Court reporters will continue to be provided for all other matters not identified above, including felony and juvenile matters with the exception of traffic matters.

For matters beginning on October 1, 2013, parties may arrange for privately retained certified court reporters to serve as an official reporter pro tempore where the Court will no longer be providing an official reporter.

It will be the party's responsibility to pay the reporter's fee for attendance at the proceedings, but the expense may be recoverable as part of the costs, as provided by law. [2.956(c), Cal. Rules of Court].

If a party arranges and pays for the attendance of a certified shorthand reporter at a hearing in a civil case because of the unavailability of the services of an official court reporter, none of the parties may be charged the reporter's attendance fee provided for in Government Code September 1, 2015

Sections 68086 (b)(1). [2.956 (d), Cal. Rules of Court]

The Approved Official Reporter Pro Tempore list, containing the names and contact information of court reporters who have been pre-approved by the Court, will be available on the Court's website. A reporter selected from the Approved Official Reporter Pro Tempore list may report a hearing without the need for a stipulation by the parties or order of the Court.

Parties that arrange for the appointment of a court reporter who is not on the Approved Official Reporter Pro Tempore list must do so by completion of the Stipulation to Appointment of Official Reporter Pro Tempore form. The court reporter shall complete the Appointment of Official Reporter Pro Tempore and be appointed by the Court. See Government Code §70044.
